BACK TO SCHOOL? IMCU HAS YOU COVERED!

Youth Financial Education

Is it Time For a First Credit Card?

Parents want what's best for their kids; teens long for more independence. Financial education for youth is a great way for both you and your teen to get what you want. It allows parents an opportunity to set their teens up for success in their financial future, and it gives teens the freedom to make their own financial decisions. When your child starts building a good credit score from a young age, they'll have a better chance of getting approved for loans and buying the car or home of their dreams.

Indiana Members Credit Union provides referrals to financial professionals of LPL Financial LLC ("LPL") pursuant to an agreement that allows LPL to pay Indiana Members Credit Union for these referrals. This creates an incentive for Indiana Members Credit Union to make these referrals, resulting in a conflict of interest. Indiana Members Credit Union is not a current client of LPL for advisory services. Please visit <https://www.lpl.com/disclosures/is-lpl-relationship-disclosure.html> for more detailed information. The LPL Financial registered representative(s) associated with this website may discuss and/or transact business only with residents of the states in which they are properly registered or licensed. No offers may be made or accepted from any resident of any other state.
