BUSINESS OWNERS: DEVELOPING A NEW IDEA?

Is there an idea or new product you are considering adding to your business? Indiana Members Credit Union helps businesses like yours grow and succeed by providing a wide range of affordable financing options. For example, if you're thinking about building a new facility or expanding your current location, you may consider a commercial real estate loan. Our loan programs offer competitive rates, flexible terms, and the support of our team of business lending professionals, who can help you create a loan program for your specific needs. Just as important, loan decisions are made here, locally, so you can count on quick answers to your requests.
