INDIANA MEMBERS CREDIT UNION NAMED BEST FINANCIAL INSTITUTION IN INDIANAPOLIS STAR “BEST THINGS INDIANAPOLIS 2018”

(Indianapolis, IN, September 24, 2018) Indiana Members Credit Union was named the best bank or credit union in the inaugural Indianapolis Star’s “Best Things Indianapolis 2018” competition. The Indianapolis Star collected over 19,000 nominations and 175,000 votes in 150 categories from the public during the three month competition. The winners were announced on Tuesday, September 18, 2018.

Ron Collier, president and chief executive officer of Indiana Members Credit Union, said, “Indiana Members Credit Union was founded by our community and everything we do and strive for is to benefit our membership. We uphold the credit union philosophy of ‘People Helping People’ through our financial service offerings, returning profits to our members, youth engagement in financial education, and service to our community. This philosophy is what sets us apart and contributes to our success. This is a tremendous honor for Indiana Members Credit Union and we are thrilled our community selected us for this award.”
