IMCU MEMBERS DONATE $10,000 VIA CANCER AWARENESS CARD

IMCU members contributed $10,000 to Strides for Sarcoma through the IMCU Cancer Awareness Debit Card Program. The IMCU Cancer Awareness Debit Card is our most popular "Choose your Charity" community giveback card and provides members an opportunity to support a different cancer-related organization each year.

A portion of each signature transaction made with this card is donated to that organization (up to $10,000 annually). Strides for Sarcoma was recently presented a check for $10,000 as the 2025-26 member-nominated recipient.

PINK RIBBON CONNECTION IS THE 2026-27 RECIPIENT

As IMCU celebrates the 10th anniversary of its Cancer Awareness Debit Card Program, we are proud to name Pink Ribbon Connection, our very first beneficiary, as the 2026-27 recipient.

An Indianapolis-based 501(c)(3) nonprofit, Pink Ribbon Connection serves residents across Indiana diagnosed with breast cancer by providing FREE resources including wigs, mastectomy bras, prostheses, education, and peer mentoring, touching the lives of over 4,000 individuals each year. Our hope is to ensure no one faces breast cancer alone.

Visit your local branch today to obtain this special debit card, ready for immediate use.

SUPPORT YOUR CAUSE BY USING ONE OF OUR GIVEBACK DEBIT CARDS

We're very proud of the partnerships Indiana Members Credit Union has established with organizations and causes in the communities we serve. They're doing great work to make Indiana an even better place to live and work, and we're happy to show our support.

That's why we've created an easy way for you to not only show your support, but also make regular contributions. It's our Affinity Debit Card program! With IMCU accounts, you're eligible for a free debit card, and you have the option to choose from a long list of affinity cards branded to your favorite organizations. Many of those cards are what we call giveback cards. That means every time you use the card to make a signature transaction, we donate to the cause.

BEST TYPE OF MORTGAGE LOAN FOR FIRST TIME HOME BUYERS

Picture this: after many years of renting, you've finally received the key to your first home. That's right, now you can paint the walls, put up as many pictures as you want, refinish the hardwood floors, or just simply enjoy a space that actually belongs to you! Purchasing a new home is an exhilarating experience that marks a significant milestone in life, especially if it's your first house. The process is filled with anticipation and dreams as you explore neighborhoods, imagine parties in your living room, and visualize a space that reflects your personality.

But purchasing your first home isn't always an easy journey, especially when it comes to the financial side. There are many different types of mortgage loans, and it can be difficult to understand what your options are, how to qualify for them, and, ultimately, which one you should select.

INDIANA Members Credit Union Privacy Notice

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and account balances
- Credit histories and credit scores
- Employment information and income

When you are no longer our member, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

All financial companies need to share members' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their members' personal information; the reasons Indiana Members Credit Union chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons We Can Share Your Personal Information	Does IMCU Share This Information?	Can You Limit This Sharing?
For our everyday business purposes such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes—to offer you our products and services	Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies	Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your transactions and experiences	No	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness	No	We don't share
For non affiliates to market to you	No	We don't share

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Open an account or give us your income information
- Apply for financing or give us your contact information
- Show us your driver's license

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for non affiliates to market to you

State law and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Definitions:

Affiliates—Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. Indiana Members Credit Union has no affiliates.

Non affiliates—Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. Indiana Members Credit Union does not share with our non affiliates so they can market to you.

Joint Marketing—A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

Our joint marketing partners include insurance companies.
